Illinois Health and Hospital Association

Researchers advise of increase in use of Bromazolam drug and prompt coordination with public health officials, poison centers when patients present with serious injuries after illicit drug use.

Your trusted voice and resource