Illinois Health and Hospital Association

What started in 1910 as “cooperative buying,” an outgrowth of the railroad industry, by New York-based Hospital Bureau of Standards & Supplies Inc., remains functionally familiar and somewhat similar even if the business modeling and financial and operational processes changed a bit after more than a century. JHC Online

Your trusted voice and resource