Illinois Health and Hospital Association

Cookouts, fireworks and holiday parties with friends and family are common occurrences on July 4, but the events also pose risk to the public if they don't take the proper precautions to stay safe.

Your trusted voice and resource